

On Tuesday, May 16 and the balance of the week, the House will consider the following measures:

H.R. 1291, the Internet Access Charge Prohibition Act of 1999;

Military Construction Appropriations for Fiscal Year 2001;

H.R. 863, the Comprehensive Budget Process Reform Act;

H.R. 4205, the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2001;

H.R. 4392, Intelligence Reauthorization; and,

Agriculture Appropriations for Fiscal Year 2001.

As we can see by the schedule, Mr. Speaker, next week will be a very busy week in the House, and Members should expect to work late nights on Tuesday through Thursday. We do, however, expect to wrap up our work for the week no later than 2 p.m. on Friday, so that Members will be able to catch flights that afternoon back to their district.

Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman for yielding.

Mr. BONIOR. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman. Just a couple of quick questions. On Tuesday next, might we begin the week after the suspension bills with the Budget Process Act? Is that what the gentleman from Texas and the leadership have in mind?

Mr. ARMEY. If the gentleman would continue to yield, again, I thank the gentleman for the inquiry. As we are contemplating the schedule, we are planning to take up the Internet Access Charge first, then Military Construction and then move on and, hopefully, complete the Comprehensive Budget Reform Act.

Mr. BONIOR. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman. And the other question I have to the gentleman from Texas is regarding the Older Americans Act. As the gentleman knows, we had a discharge petition filed today to bring that bill to the floor. It is an important bill. It deals with very key programs for our seniors, including the Meals on Wheels. And I would ask the gentleman from Texas when he would expect to bring the Older Americans Act to the floor?

Mr. ARMEY. I thank the gentleman for the inquiry. If the gentleman would continue to yield, the committee of jurisdiction is working on it. The gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. GOODLING) has advised me they continue to work on it. We recognize the importance of the bill and we would like to get it to us as soon as possible. I will advise the gentleman as progress proceeds.

Mr. BONIOR. Mr. Speaker, I thank my colleague and wish him a good weekend.

INTERNATIONAL ABDUCTION

(Mr. LAMPSON asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. LAMPSON. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to tell the story of Rayma and Rasheed El-Saleh, two children who were abducted from Cincinnati, Ohio, to Saudi Arabia in 1992 by their non-custodial father.

After an investigation led by the mother, Mary El-Saleh, the father's brother, was contacted in Lebanon and eventually the abductor called Mary and the children were able to speak to her. Rayma and Rasheed expressed how much they missed their mother and sounded depressed.

The children's father, Saleh Chenade El-Saleh, who was formerly trained as a Palestinian terrorist, is very controlling and may be abusive toward the children. He has tried to force Rasheed to testify against his mother and Rayma is apparently showing a great deal of mental stress and is threatening suicide.

Mr. Speaker, Rayma and Rasheed have been wrongfully taken from their mother and placed in a possibly dangerous situation. This House must do something to bring them and the other 10,000 American children who have been abducted to foreign countries back home.

EQUAL PAY DAY

(Mrs. MORELLA asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Mrs. MORELLA. Mr. Speaker, I rise to recognize today, May 11, as Equal Pay Day. Gender equity is an ongoing struggle that seeps into many facets of all of our lives. We have made a lot of progress and I hope that we will eventually see the end of Equal Pay Day, because the goal will have been achieved. Until then, we know that women do not receive a 27 percent discount on milk when they buy groceries, and they do not pay 27 percent less than men for rent or day care.

The gap between women's and men's wages has narrowed since 1963, but women still bring home only about 73 cents for every man's dollar. And equally disheartening is that the gender-based pay gap with African-American women earning 63 cents and Latino women earning 53 cents on each dollar a man earns.

Achieving equality takes not only awareness of a problem, but a coalition of those dedicated to solving the problem of eliminating the wage gap. The National Committee on Pay Equity, Business and Professional Women, the labor unions and the EEOC, have all helped lead the fight for pay equity. I thank them for representing so many women in the struggles, challenges and victories that they have faced, and I urge this body to do all on our behalf to make sure that we have the legislation in order so that every day is Equal Pay Day.

CONGRATULATIONS TO MARV SATHER, "TEACHER OF THE YEAR" FOR THE STATE OF WASHINGTON

Mr. NETHERCUTT. Mr. Speaker, I am delighted today to make a comment in support of a gentleman by the name of Marv Sather who is from my district, the Fifth District of Washington, who has been given the great award of Teacher of the Year for the State of Washington.
